Traditions Board Tackles Problem of Enlivening Weekly Convo Programs

BY JOAN GREEN

The convocation to be staged Friday by Traditions Board will be the first active indicator of ideas for giving convos more entertainment appeal.

Sparse attendance of the average convo is proof that something needs to be done to increase interest. For the average MSU student, convo has degenerated to being an affair attended because of sense of duty accompanied by hopes that it might, per chance, prove interesting. It often results in remarks that the person would rather spend time in class and doubts that he or she will ever go again. Too often, they don't go, or if they do, it is with great irregularity.

Convocations are one of the few chances MSU students and faculty have to gather as one group, with one center of interest, which should result in forwarding a feeling of group unity or school spirit that is commonly believed dormant here. Convos could be one of the best ways of forwarding this spirit, if they could be made interesting enough to insure a large majority attendance with 100 per cent group interest.

The only means of insuring this is to present programs of greater variety, with a greater diversity of entertainers in one convo. What appeals to a few does not necessarily appeal to all.

Several excellent plans were brought up at Traditions Board meeting which, if put into effect, will go a long way toward making convos a highlight of the week rather than a day when classes are shortened.

First of these plans is to enlist MSU talent. If each convo had only one girl entertainer with appeal for the opposite sex, and vice versa, the chances are convos would be regarded in a much more favorable light.

Second, a greater amount of group singing and yelling would give the entire group a chance to get in the spirit of things and might serve to wipe the expressions of boredom away. As a starter, "Chippo" Golder, yell king, has had 3,000 copies of songs and yells mimeographed for next Friday's convo. Arrangements should be made for a permanent song leader.

Third, organization of a college orchestra that would buoy up convos and also be willing to play for other campus affairs would be a great step toward real organization.

Without the help and consent of other boards, convos on the whole cannot be changed, but school sentiment necessitates at least looking into the matter.

SOS Thursday

SOS will be held Thursday, Feb. 7, on Main Hall steps. Spurs will form a snake dance through all the halls, preceding SOS. Group singing and yelling will be a part of the program.

Ford Named Chairman Of Committee

Dean James L. C. Ford was elected chairman of the National Council on Education for Journalism at the annual meeting of the American Association of Schools and Departments of Journalism in Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 20-30.

"As chairman of the national AASDJ, I will be in charge of accrediting relations of the 34 schools which at present are recognized as class 'A' schools of journalism with the American Council on Education for Journalism," Dean Ford said.

"MSU's school of journalism was a charter member in 1917 when the AASDJ was originally formed, and it has maintained its membership ever since."

Dean Ford was also elected one of the five educator members of the American council on education for journalism. As a member of the council he will be actively concerned with the direct supervising of the accrediting of all journalism education in the United States on high school, junior college and college levels.

The four other educator members of the American council who are deans of journalism are Frank L. Mott, Missouri; Kenneth E. Olson, Northwestern; Ralph D. Casey, Minnesota, and Fred S. Siebert, Illinois. In addition, five representatives from leading newspapers and publishers of the country were elected to complete the ten-man committee.

Jean Corry In Lima, Peru

Jean Corry, a former student at the university who recently has been teaching home economics at Mills College in California, is a member of the Inter-American Educational Foundation group at Lima, Peru. Her responsibilities in this new position entail teaching good family life practices in Lima. She cooperates with the schools and the homes in helping build up good home management, child guidance and health practices. She writes that the position entails a great deal of responsibility in carrying some of the home management standards of our country to this South American group.

She is living with a Peruvian family composed of a widow and a nine year old boy. She feels quite well taken care of and finds the physical aspect of her life almost luxurious. Lima, she writes, is a city of parks that are very beautiful and at this time of the year they are full of exquisite flowers.

McCain, Two Professors Touring State

President James A. McCain, accompanied by Dean Curtis H. Walden of the School of Pharmacy and Prof. Andy Cogswell of the School of Journalism, left Monday morning for an all-week tour of the state, during which Mr. McCain will address a number of civic organizations and alumni groups.

Mr. McCain's scheduled itinerary is as follows: Monday noon, Bozeman alumni; Monday evening, Livingston Rotary Club; Tuesday morning, Park County High School; Tuesday noon, Livingston Kiwanis Club; Wednesday morning, Billings High School seniors; Wednesday night, Billings Commercial Club (MSU alumni invited); Thursday, Lewistown Farm and Home week and alumni dinner; Friday evening, Harlowton Chamber of Commerce dinner.

Prof. Cogswell is making the trip in his capacity as state alumni secretary. Dean Walden is contacting druggists in connection with the School of Pharmacy.

The trio plan to return to Missoula Saturday.

Peterson New Pharmacy Professor

With an increase in student enrollment winter quarter came a corresponding increase in the faculty. One of the new teachers on the campus is A. F. Peterson of the pharmacy department.

Peterson did his first college work at MSU and graduated with the class of 1923. While attending school here he was affiliated with the Sigma Nu fraternity, Kappa Psi fraternity for pharmacists, Scabbard and Blade, and Bear Paws, sophomore men's honorary. He received his bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota and immediate afterwards taught pharmacy for one term in Little Rock College, Little Rock, Ark.

From 1935 to 1940 Peterson was a member of the Montana state board of pharmacy, a position he resigned in 1940 to go on active duty with the Army. In January, 1942, he went overseas with the administrative branch of the AAF, and remained in the southwest Pacific for 35 months. At the time of his discharge he held the rank of major. Prior to his service in the Army Peterson was in the retail drug business with Peterson Drug Company.

Dean Walden left yesterday on a trip to Bozeman, Livingston, Billings, Miles City and several smaller cities to meet with the pharmacists in these communities and to confer with the secretary of the state board of pharmacy.

Pharmacy Club members will have a meeting tomorrow night at 7:30 in room 205 of the chemistry-pharmacy building.

NOTICE

The Joans of the Darby and Joan Club will meet Tuesday at 7:30 at the Student Union. Wives of newly enrolled students are particularly invited.

DAV Sends Telegram To President Truman

TAKEN FROM THE GREAT FALLS TRIBUNE

A special housing committee of the Montana department, Disabled American Veterans, charged Saturday in a telegram to President Truman that some veterans at MSU will have to pay $45 to 60 a month rent because the federal housing administration had "circumvented the law" pertaining to making housing available for the education of veterans.

100 More Houses Allocated

BY VIC REINEMER

One hundred additional family housing units have been allocated to MSU, according to J. B. Gillingham, director of student personnel. The buildings are available immediately at their present location in the Spokane area, where they were formerly temporary war housing units.

The houses will be moved to Missoula at government expense, with the university providing the site, which has not yet been decided on, and the maintenance. It is hoped to have some of the units, which vary in size from one to three bedrooms, ready for occupancy by this spring.

With the 26 trailers and 27 pre-fabs now on the campus the additional units will accommodate 153 married veterans and their families. Records in the student personnel office indicate that 160 married vets have applied for housing, although some of these men have found accommodations since making application.

Subject to approval by the Federal Public Housing Authority, trailer rental will be $19.25 per calendar month, which includes all utilities.

Mr. Gillingham and T. G. Swearingen, maintenance engineer, will be in Seattle Monday on business connected with the new houses.

Collegians' Radio Habits To Be Polled

Radio listening habits of American college students will be scrutinized in a survey launched today by the Intercollegiate Broadcasting System. Approximately 2,000 students will be asked to name their favorite types of programs, their favorite stations, their best listening times. This is believed to be the first time that the audience of college students has been systematically studied.

Following the pre-test at Princeton University, the survey will move on to the nineteen other colleges which have member stations of the IBS. The survey will study listening to "outside" radio stations as well as to the IBS stations which are operated by the students themselves and heard only on the campus.

Designed to discover what students like to hear on the radio, the poll is directed by the national office of IBS in New York. The questions will be asked by student volunteers chosen from the stations of the chain.

Signing the telegram were John W. Mahan, Helena, former national commander of the Disabled American Veterans, chairman; Chief Justice Howard A. Johnson of the Montana supreme court; Charles E. Pew, Helena, former state commander of the American Legion; Robert Proebstel, Missoula, state vice commander of the DAV, and Charles O'Rourke, Helena, DAV national committeeman. The committee was appointed at a recent meeting here.

Classed as Permanent

Amplifying the wire to the president, Mahan said that because the housing administrator had assertedly classified 28 structures the university had negotiated to buy at the Richland, Wash., atomic bomb project, as permanent the university will be obligated for around $50,000 and will have to reimburse itself through rentals to amortize a loan being made for the purchase.

Mahan contended the houses are not permanent and actually and under provisions of public law 292, recently approved, should be classed as temporary, in which case they could be had without cost to the university.

In addition to the 28 units, the university will obtain 100 units classified as temporary. These units are expected to be installed late this winter or early in the spring, according to President James A. McCain of the university. The government would finance the moving.

The committee's telegram to President Truman said:

"Montana university at Missoula has a minimum of 200 veterans (please see page two)"

Variety Convo Scheduled For Friday

Bear Paws and Traditions Board will present a joint convo Friday at 11 a.m. in the form of several skits typifying university traditions.

Bill O'Donnell, Casper, Wyo., will be in charge and will introduce the members of the chapter to the gathering. Chippo Golder, Missoula, yell king, and a Bear Paw in 1941, will give a short talk on school spirit and yelling at athletic contests.

Jerry Anderson will introduce the skits and act as master of ceremonies throughout the program.

Anderson's message will give a brief outline of the Bear Paw activities and functions on this campus since its organization, Nov. 5, 1920. Musical numbers will be presented.

Letter men and barristers will be in charge of the Aber Day skit, while the Kappa Trio will represent convocations. Helen Sugrue, Anaconda, and Speed Grater, Pittsburgh, Pa., will give a skit about Senior Bench with George Lewis, Missoula, and Susan Brenner, Glendive, furnishing background music.

Guldbrandson's "Jubileers" will represent SOS. Dean Vinell's orchestra and the Grizzly Pep Band will play for the program.

Whoso tells the truth dully, he treats a noble friend most shabbily; for truly the truth deserves cloth of Brabant and cloak of ermine. Yet is the dullest truth better than the cleverest insincerity.

DEAN A. L. STONE.

Judging from the story we have reprinted from the Great Falls Tribune everything is not rosy on the housing front. This fact was called to our attention about a fortnight ago but the persons advising us of the situation were not then sure of their facts. We held the story and were scooped.

Let's Not be Pushed Around

In a couple of weeks Paul Robeson will appear on our campus as one of the artists brought here by the Community Concert Association. Students will present their activity tickets at the Student Union business office and get tickets to the Robeson performance—BUT ONLY 500 WILL BE GIVEN OUT.

The students are allotted only that number of seats under the present arrangement with the Community Concert Association. Recently the association offered a plan whereby the students might secure 1,400 seats for the coming year. The plan was not altogether acceptable. Central Board postponed action pending a poll of student opinion.

At present we are getting 500 seats (our original agreement calls for 600 seats for 800 dollars but this number was sliced to 500 this year at the request of the Community Concert people). The new proposal is to let us have 1,400 seats at 3,450 dollars plus tax.

Simple arithmetic will show that this is a stiff raise in price. Central Board members were quick to see this. The Concert Association had no suitable answer. Board members probed but found no solution. There the matter stands today.

The value of these concerts to our student body can not be denied. We all recognize this. We do not, however, feel that we are being given all the facts. There is a feeling that someone is trying to put something over on the students.

We suggest that the question be approached from a purely material angle. We have the auditorium. The Concert Association has the artists. Let's bargain along those lines.

Let's not be influenced by the pitiful stories of over-subscription and hard bargains that have been brought to Central Board by the Concert Association or persons speaking in their behalf. Let's insist that we bargain on an equal basis. Instead of acting one way or another on an ultimatum from the Community Concerts we should make our own counter-proposal and let them do the choosing. It is fairly obvious that these people don't care much for the wishes of students for only last year one of their artists appeared here during Christmas vacation when all but the Missoula students were out of town.

Coeds did a nice bit of entertaining this past weekend. Their dance was one of the nicest we have attended on this campus. Despite the questionable attraction in Bozeman, that lured some of our number to the agricultural college for the weekend, the dance was well attended. May we have many more like the Coed Ball.

We got a job the other day as one of the two campus representatives for Chesterfield cigarettes. We mention this because we think it is a good sign that things are returning to normal on the nation's campuses. The same company has been doing considerable advertising in your paper. When more big advertisers return to college papers we shall be able to come out daily once more.

Versus

BY ART CLOWES

At last it has happened. I knew it would. My good friend John Brunett has been eliminated. What with all these beatings, censures, etc., poor John just called it quits.

Yesterday he drove his T-Ford around in front of Main Hall and got out. There is nothing wrong with this procedure, except that poor John, with his customary bad luck, slipped on the ice and fell wailing into the middle of the driveway.

Now as poor John was cussing the elements, Sir Maneating Sites came cruising around the oval. At the sight of the strange object in the road, Sir Maneating jammed on the brakes and screeched to a near stop. However, upon recognizing poor John, he immediately double-clutched his limousine into second and ran smack over poor John. He then parked in front of the law school.

Sir Maneating Sites stepped out of his automobile, shook his fist at prostrate Johnny and shouted, "I'll have a summons served!"

Poor John weakly answered, "Go ahead."

Then Sir Maneating Sites screamed, "I'll write a letter to the editor!"

Poor John rolled over and gasped, "No! Not that! Anything but that!"

But Sir Maneating Sites was not bothered by this proletarian whining and quickly started a letter to the editor.

Poor John, seeing all was lost, hauled out a snub-nosed .38 and drilled himself right through the gizmo.

And that, my friends, was the end of poor John.

MSU Alumni Form Chapter

About 90 MSU graduates activated an alumni chapter in Great Falls last Thursday, with J. B. Gillingham, director of student personnel, Coach Doug Fessenden and Prof. Andy Cogswell of the School of Journalism in attendance.

LeRoy (Chink) Seymour '38 heads the new organization which, according to Mr. Gillingham, "contains a very vigorous and enthusiastic membership and promises to be one of the most effective alumni chapters in the state."

Rae Greene '41, ex-Grizzly athlete, acted as toastmaster at the banquet, with O. S. Warden, publisher of the Great Falls Tribune, cumvented the law by classifying as permanent said temporary dwellings.

"The university is purchasing these houses at an expense necessitating $45 to $60 a month rental, leaving married GI veterans $30 to $45 for all other expenses.

"This misinterpretation of the law by the United States housing authority defeats educational provisions of the GI bill. We cannot believe your administration would purposely defeat those beneficial acts.

"Under no unbiased construction can these houses be classed other than temporary housing designed to be removed. We respectfully urge that appropriate action be taken to enforce compliance with the law."

as guest of honor. Mr. Warden expressed the opinion that properly organized alumni groups could and should exert significant influence on the university and could render essential service.

Mr. Gillingham delivered the main address of the evening, in which he contrasted our present wide curriculum and varied choice of electives with the narrow scope of college training a century ago. He stressed the fact that an adequately staffed and properly trained student personnel department, which supervises housing, food, recreation, placement, guidance and scholarships, can contribute much in attaining today's objective of greater individualization of the educational process and also achieve optimum development of all aspects of student development.

Mr. Cogswell, newly-elected secretary of the MSU Alumni Association, and Coach Fessenden spoke briefly.

Most of us who read Jean Dineen's column bemoaning the decrepit condition of the women's gym quickly grasped the significance.

The ancient facilities available for women's sports are deplorable! But even they are outdone by the lack of virtually all of the facilities and equipment for both major and minor sports at the university.

—M—

Of course the greatest need and the one that would solve most of our football, basketball and track problems is a modern field house. Nearly every major college in the country is now equipped or is planning the construction of a field house, but not Montana!

—M—

A field house would provide an indoor track for work during Montana's usually-late springs. Even Missoula County High School has an indoor track!

An indoor practice field would also be available to Grizzly football squads, who have always been hampered by bad weather.

In the field house a spacious, well-lighted and ventilated basketball court, which could easily seat 6,000 spectators, would be at Grizzly disposal.

Also an up-to-date swimming pool, where intercollegiate and interscholastic meets could be staged properly, would be available.

With such a field house, the present Men's gym could be turned over exclusively to the women and the present women's gym could be used for intramural sports.

—M—

The lack of any kind of a scoreboard on Dornblaser Field and its antiquated public address system are a crime on the university.

And even Stevensville high school has an automatic scoreboard and clock in their gymnasium.

—M—

For a prize example of what intramural and minor sports suffer under, may I suggest you read or re-read the recent tennis court report printed last week in the Kaimin.

—M—

"Fine—" you say, "but what does Mr. Weston suggest the student body do? He can't expect them to put up the $500,000 necessary to build a field house."

No, the student body can't build the field house in so many words, but . . . as Bob Blair would say, "Apply pressure now!"

—M—

A deluge of letters to the State Board of Education and even Governor Ford might help. Petitions to university officials, letters to the editors of your home-town newspapers will also help.

And when someone starts to razz you about the "losing" Grizzly teams, you have the best chance to get your point across.

Answer them with, "How can you expect the Grizzlies to win if the people of the state fail to provide them with the facilities that their rival colleges have?"

—M—

If Montana's student body screams long enough and loud enough, somebody in this state will take notice and do something about Montana State University.

Montana State College has scheduled four football games for next fall. The annual Grizzly-Bobcat classic will be played in Butte, Oct. 19.

Silvertips To Journey Westward

Montana Meets Idaho, Gonzaga in Four-Game Trip into Palouse

Montana's victory-hungry Silvertips begin a four-game road trip this weekend that will carry them to Spokane and Moscow, Idaho, meeting the Gonzaga Bulldogs Friday and Saturday nights, and the Idaho Vandals, Monday and Tuesday.

Gonzaga

The Bulldogs, whom the Grizzlies beat 69 to 42 and 103 to 34 here two weeks ago, are rated as underdogs but still present a definite threat in the uncanny shooting ability of Johnny Presley.

Idaho

In Idaho, the Grizzlies run up against one of the classiest teams in the west. The Vandals are currently leading the northern division Pacific Coast Conference, having won their last five starts.

Northern division standings as of Feb. 2:

| Team— | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|--------------|-----|------|------|
| Idaho | 6 | 4 | .600 |
| Oregon State | 5 | 4 | .556 |
| Oregon | 5 | 4 | .556 |
| Washington | 5 | 5 | .500 |
| WSC | 2 | 6 | .250 |
| Montana | 0 | 0 | .000 |

The Grizzlies are not playing a conference schedule this season, meeting only one conference foe, Idaho.

Inter-Frat Loop Hits Halfway Mark This Week

Inter-frat basketball is in the process of playing off postponed games to complete the first half of the schedule, which is made up of two complete round robins.

Last night two of the previously postponed games, including the crucial Phi Delta Theta-Sigma Chi battle, were played off. (Because of the deadline for Tuesday copy today's Kaimin was unable to carry the results.)

For the second round-robin of the schedule, a new Independent team has entered the loop. This South Hall team will forfeit all of its first round-robin games due to its late entry.

League standings as of the end of last week:

| Team— | W | L | Pct. | TP |
|------------|---|---|-------|-----|
| SX | 4 | 0 | 1.000 | 168 |
| SAE | 3 | 1 | .750 | 141 |
| PDT | 3 | 1 | .750 | 118 |
| Mavericks | 2 | 2 | .500 | 141 |
| SN | 0 | 4 | .000 | 112 |
| TX | 0 | 4 | .000 | 106 |
| South Hall | 0 | 6 | .000 | 0 |

Results of all games played up to last night:

SX 38, TX 23; PDT 35, SN 19; SX 40, SAE 27; Mavericks 38, SN 32; PDT 26, TX 21; SAE 44, SN 27; SX 50, SN 34; SAE 40, TX 33; SAE 30, PDT 16; SX 40, Mavericks 29; Mavericks 48, TX 29; PDT 41, Mavericks 26.

Next fall's football games with Cheney and Gonzaga are still tentative as those schools have not yet decided to return to football next fall.

Montana State College has scheduled four football games for next fall. The annual Grizzly-Bobcat classic will be played in Butte, Oct. 19.

Junior Varsity Drops Two At Bozeman

Adding insult to injury, Montana State's Bobcat Reserves twice defeated the University Junior Varsity in Bozeman, Friday and Saturday.

Rudy Collins was the Grizzly bright spot, hitting 18 points in the second game, played Saturday afternoon; the first game was played as preliminary to the Friday Bobcat-Grizzly varsity tilt.

The victories left the Bobcat B squad undefeated. They will meet with the Junior Varsity in preliminaries to the Grizzly-Bobcat series in Missoula, March 1 and 2.

State Wins Ski Meet

Making the Bozeman disaster complete, the Grizzly ski team fell before the all-conquering Montana State Bobcats in the two-day Intercollegiate Ski Meet, Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

The Bobcats won three out of five places in a slalom contest Sunday and were victorious in downhill races and point totals in the Saturday events. On a percentage basis the Bobcats were awarded winners with 732 to the university's 626.

Slalom times were: Wally Eagan, College, 1:12.5; Ray Gustafson, College, 1:13.5; George Savage, University, 1:15.4; Ed Eck, College, 1:19.8; Harry Reining, University, 1:23.6; Ben Beatty, College, 1:36.8; Bob Manchester, University, 1:44; Otto Ost, University, 1:54.1; Bob Downs, University, 1:55.7, and Jerry Eby, College, 2:30.2.

Alexander Gray, baritone, appears in the role of Dr. Engle in "The Student Prince" operetta scheduled for the Wilma theater, Feb. 7.

Grizzlies Taste Double Dose Defeat at Hands of Bobcats

BY DON WESTON

Montana State's Bobcats cinched no worse than a tie for the state intercollegiate basketball championship by handing the Grizzlies a double-dose defeat in the first half of the Grizzly-Bobcat series in Bozeman last Friday and Saturday.

Both of the games were thrillers with the Cats coming from behind to win each night, 66 to 51, Friday, and 64 to 57, Saturday.

It was a completely rejuvenated State squad with every play clicking with precision much to the pleasure of Bobcat Coach John Breeden, who believed his team played the best ball they had all season.

or the Cats take the 1946 title.

The Grizzlies jumped to an early lead on shots by Holding and Rocheleau; then the Cats tied it up, matching the Silvertips basket for basket until late in the final half when substitute forward "Stub" Blodgett exploded with six baskets and two gift shots to put State far in front. Lou Rocheleau took scoring honors for the Dahlbergers with 15; DeTonancour, as usual, led the Cats with 22.

Second Game

After a 33-33 half-time deadlock the Bobcats again made a terrific second half spurt. State raced for four baskets just as the final canto opened and never again let the Grizzlies closer than three points.

The second game was much rougher with the Silvertips fighting desperately to salvage one of the opening series.

Timer Moses was high-point Grizzly with 18; for the Cats it was DeTonancour with 16.

The rivals will meet again in Missoula, March 1 and 2, when the Grizzlies must win both games

Sigma Chi Issues Rules For Sweetheart Race

Rules for the Sigma Chi sweetheart contest have been sent to sorority and dormitory presidents by Bill Miles, contest chairman, and candidates must be chosen and their names submitted by Feb. 8 to be eligible to enter.

Two girls from each women's living organization are to be chosen from the Freshman class with no qualification as to color of hair and eyes. No girl will be accepted who has a relative, either active or pledge, now in Beta Delta chapter in Missoula.

Candidates will be entertained at not less than two social functions prior to the ball, March 8, and elimination will continue until five finalists are left. Balloting will be secret and only members of the active chapter will participate.

Final results will be known only to the committee chairman, house president and the dean of women until the night of the ball. All five candidates who reach the finals will be escorted to the dance. Escorts for the parties preceding the ball will be provided for all contestants.

Cooperation of the women is requested in all phases of the contest. All women's living organizations will be kept well informed with the progress of the contest.

All contestants will be notified as to their part in the contest. If a candidate is chosen as finalist, she will be notified of her success 24 hours after the voting. If a candidate is not notified of her success in the balloting, she will be aware of her elimination. The chapter asks that all delegates be thoroughly familiar with the rules and regulations of the contest, copies of which are in the hands of all house presidents.

Balloting will be carried on immediately after the last social function which the candidate has attended at the chapter house.

Millay Poem Will be Read

Edna St. Vincent Millay's "Conversation at Midnight" will occupy the program at Wednesday night's poetry recital, given by John Moore and Baxter Hathaway in Library 103 at 8. To those who are familiar with Edna St. Vincent Millay's poetry only through her earlier sonnets and lyrics, "Conversation at Midnight" comes as a surprise, since it shows a far more mature poet at work and a much more stimulatingly thoughtful kind of poetry. First published in 1937, this work shows a further development of thought and techniques already demonstrated in "Wine from These Grapes."

Initiations Continue

Greek letter fraternities continued to hold the limelight this week with 32 pledges becoming active at initiation ceremonies. Seven Tri Deltas were initiated Saturday night, 15 Alpha Phis Friday night and six Alpha Chis Sunday morning.

New Pledge

Tri Deltas have pledged Mary Lake of Missoula. Betty Ruth Howell has received an engagement diamond from Jack Waldren, ex-Marine, who has returned to school and is a Sigma Nu.

Alpha Chis had a formal dinner before Coed Ball Saturday night for their dates.

Dinner Guests

Miss Mirrilees was a dinner guest at the Co-op House Sunday, and Olive Waisner was a guest at the Delta Gamma house. Theta entertained Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gulbrandson Sunday and had as dinner guests Thursday night Jean Taylor, Jean Turnquist, Mary Balsom and Mary Lake. This Thursday they are planning a dessert for the Sigma Chis. Johanna Grich was a Sunday dinner guest at the Kappa house.

Mountaineer Picks Material

Molding of the winter quarter Mountaineer will begin Wednesday afternoon when the magazine's editorial staff meets to consider the student-literary works which have been contributed to date.

Editor Agnes Regan, Helena, urges all students planning to submit stories, articles or poetry to turn material in as soon as possible, either to the Mountaineer office, Library 111, or to John Moore or Baxter Hathaway, advisers.

E. G. Marble, registrar, wishes to remind all new students who took the Mantoux tests yesterday to report at the Health Service Wednesday, between 9 and 4 to determine the results.
